Friday, April 26th

6:30–8:30 PM..... "1799: Year of Wonders" Presentation and Reception
Union Club, 101 E. 69th Street

In the same year that merchant William Robinson built what is today the Mount Vernon Hotel Museum, the world was undergoing an age of discovery, invention and powerful political changes that would transform the world forever. In this presentation, Dame Lisa Pennington, who serves as Governor General of the General Society of Mayflower Descendants, and her husband, historian and lawyer David Furlow, will share about the people and objects that astonished the world in 1799 and built the foundations of our modern era!

*Fee waived for members of the 1890 Society
